

CRIC Annual Conference (hybrid) 19th – 21st September 2022

“Disordering and Re-ordering – swing of the pendulum or spinning out of control”

Programme

Monday 19th September

- 14h00 Opening and Introduction – John Alderdice
- 14h15 How the wisdom of the ancients can help us in our current crises
– Lecture from Dariusz Karlowicz, (Poland) followed by discussion with Scott Atran (France/USA), Scherto Gill (UK) and John Alderdice (UK)
- 15h30 Tea/Coffee
- 16h00 The New Nuclear Threat in Ukraine – Chuck Strozier and Dave
Terman (USA)
- 16h45 Why this is not the last war. On the psychology of geopolitical conflict – Koert Debeuf (Belgium)
- 17h30 Perils and Prospects of a United Ireland – Padraig O’Malley (USA)
- 18h30 Close of Session
- 19h00 Dinner in Arlosh Hall (HMC) for in-person attendees
- 20h00 Private showing of “Garwin” a film about 2022 CRIC Honouree, Dr
Richard Garwin

Tuesday 20th September

- 09h00 Enter the Age of Cywar: Some Reflections on an Emergent Trend - Kumar Ramakrishna (Singapore)
- 09h45 Falling Short - Exploring Mediation Effectiveness - Matt Waldman (UK)
- 10h30 Tea/Coffee
- 11h00 Ways forward on race in the U.S.: Anti-racism and alternative strategies - Michael Cowan (USA)
- 11h45 Strategic Instincts: The Adaptive Advantages of Cognitive Biases in International Politics - Dominic Johnson (Oxford)
- 12h30 Lunch
- 13h30 Security sector governance reform in a country that does not exist – Niall Johnston (Ireland)
- 14h00 The future of information – Admiral Doug Fears, Rich Davis, Hasan Davulcu (USA)
- 15h30 Tea/Coffee
- 16h00 Proactive Motherhood against Political Violence – Deniz Ulke Aribogan and Hamoon Khelghat Doost (Turkey)
- 17h00 Whither the Colombian Peace Process in 2023? - Eva Grosman, Andres Ucros et al
- 18h00 Presentation of CRIC Award to Dr Richard Garwin – the renowned physicist and inventor who helped shape history as designer of the first hydrogen bomb and later as a top science adviser on nuclear arms control and other issues.
- 19h00 Dinner in Arlosh Hall (HMC) for in-person attendees

Wednesday 21st September

- 09h00 Mental Health and Trauma on Pathways to Violent or Peaceful Behaviour – Nafees Hamid (UK)
- 09h45 Ready for a perfect storm: leadership, dialogue and trust in a time of disconnection – Mike Hardy (UK)
- 10h30 Tea/Coffee
- 11h00 Peace making and Peacebuilding in South Africa: The National Peace Accord, 1991-1994 - Rev Dr Liz Carmichael (UK/South Africa)
- 11h45 Indigenous Developments - Michele Sam (Canada)
- 12h15 Reviewing the conference – Eva Grosman (Director for Communications, CRIC, UK) in conversation with Lord Alderdice
- 13h00 Close of Conference

With thanks to the staff of Harris Manchester College for all their help and with sincere appreciation to ARTIS International, ARTIS Europe, and The Concord Foundation for their sponsorship and support for the work of CRIC during the past year and particularly of this 2022 CRIC Annual Conference.

